Catalog Statement

Senior Citizen Rate: Idaho residents who are at least 60 years old may register for a course and pay $5 per credit hour, a $20 registration fee (per semester), and any special fees (for example, private music lessons, workshops, online fees, laboratory fees). The senior citizen rate does not apply to self-support programs (i.e., teacher professional development) or noncredit programs (i.e., the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute). The senior citizen rate is based on course availability. All students who use the senior citizen rate will be able to register for classes at the end of the degree-seeking student registration cycle or during open enrollment. Students who choose to register with the general degree seeking population must sign an agreement indicating that they are opting out of use of the senior citizen rate. To receive the senior citizen rate, first apply for admission, then request the Idaho Senior Citizen's Fee Reduction from the Payment and Disbursement Center, Administration building, Room 101, or call (208) 426-1212 by providing the cashier your driver's license, birth certificate, or other proof of age.

vii. Senior Citizen Fee

The fee for Idaho residents who are 60 years of age or older shall be a registration fee of twenty dollars ($20.00) plus five dollars ($5.00) per credit hour. This fee is for courses on a space available basis only. Special course fees may also be charged.

I have read the Senior Citizen Rate catalog statement and State Board of Education Fee Policy above. I authorize the Office of the Registrar to assign a continuing student registration appointment that voids the use of the fee rate until I rescind in writing.
